

AT THE DOCTOR'S – the flu

(At the doctor's office. Patient enters.)

A: Hello, what is your name?

B: My name is (.....)

A: What's the matter?

B: I don't feel good.

A: Tell me what hurts.

B: My head is hot.

I have a runny nose and I sneeze a lot.

A: It sounds like you have a bad cold.

B: Oh! What can I do?

A: Let me call the nurse first.

She will take your temperature.

Nurse, can you please come?

(nurse enters)

C: Yes, doctor.

How can I help?

A: (.....) doesn't feel good.

Can you please take his temperature?

C: Of course doctor. Right away.

(nurse puts the thermometer)

Oh, it seems you have a fever.

A: Thank you nurse.

(nurse leaves)

Ok (.....), you have the flu.

B: The flu?

What is that?

A: It is when you have a very bad cold.

B: What should I do doctor?

A: First, you must drink a lot of water.

Second, you must go to bed and rest.

Take this medicine every 8 hours.

B: Alright doctor.

I will do what you tell me.

A: I hope you feel better soon.

B: Thank you doctor.

A: You are welcome.

Take care!

goodbye (.....)

B: Bye doctor.
